THE REPORT

The orientation program for the B.Com. 1st Semester students of Pramathesh Barua College, Gauripur, for the academic session 2024-25, was successfully conducted on 9th August 2024 in the Digital Classroom of the college. The event, which was aimed at familiarizing the new students with the college's academic environment, faculty, and curriculum, saw active participation from both students and faculty members.

The program commenced at 10:00 a.m. with a warm welcome address delivered by Dr. Gaurav Dutta, Assistant Professor, Department of Accountancy. Dr. Dutta extended his heartfelt greetings to the new batch of students and introduced the faculty members from various departments. He highlighted the college's commitment to providing quality education and encouraged students to make the most of the resources available to them.

Following the welcome address, Mr. Diganta Biswas, Assistant Professor and Head of the Department of Accountancy, took the stage to elaborate on the Program Outcomes (PO) and Course Outcomes (COs) associated with the courses offered by the Department of Accountancy. He emphasized the importance of a strong foundation in accountancy and how the curriculum is designed to equip students with the necessary skills to excel in their academic and professional careers. Mr. Biswas also provided a brief introduction to the National Education Policy (NEP) curriculum, which aims to create a more holistic and multidisciplinary approach to education.

The session continued with a speech by Mr. Samsuddhoha Ahmed, Associate Professor and Head of the Department of Finance. Mr. Ahmed discussed the Program Outcomes (PO) and Course Outcomes (COs) for the courses under the Department of Finance. His presentation included a brief overview of the recent trends in global finance, emphasizing the dynamic nature of the financial world and the need for students to stay updated with these changes. He also highlighted the department's focus on preparing students to face the challenges of the ever-evolving financial sector.

Next, Miss Pinky Gogoi, Assistant Professor and Head of the Department of Management, addressed the students. She spoke about the Program Outcomes (PO) and Course Outcomes (COs) for the courses under the Department of Management, focusing on the significance of communication skills in today's business environment. Miss Gogoi also discussed the multidisciplinary nature of the NEP curriculum and its role in shaping well-rounded individuals who are capable of adapting to various professional scenarios.

An interactive session followed, where students had the opportunity to engage with the faculty members. The session was facilitated by Mr. Pranab Kr. Barman, Assistant Professor, and Mr. Anup Kr. Seal, Assistant Professor from the Department of Finance, along with Mr. Dhruva Mazumdar, Assistant Professor from the Department of Accountancy. The students were encouraged to ask questions, share their expectations, and participate in cultural activities, fostering a sense of community and camaraderie among the new batch.

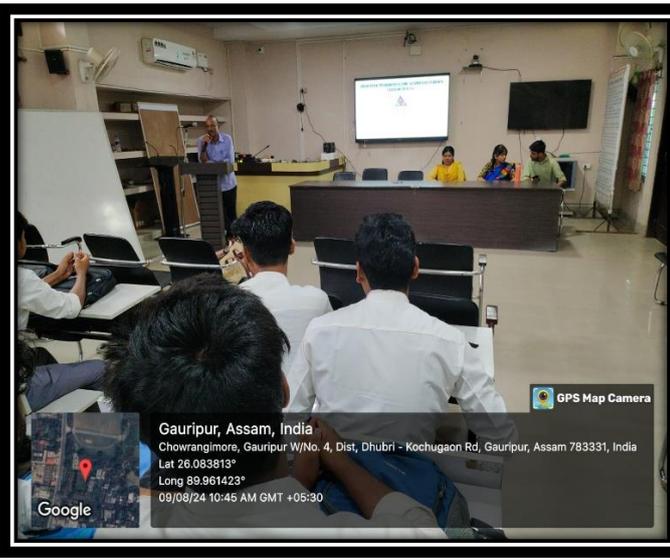

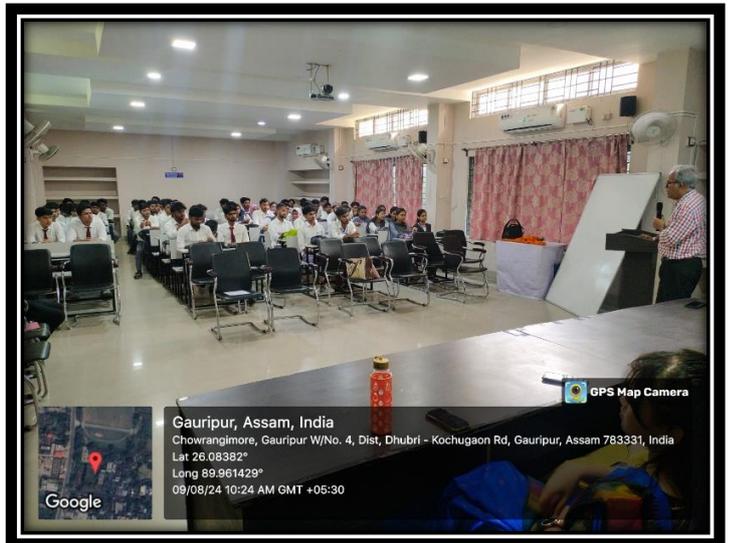

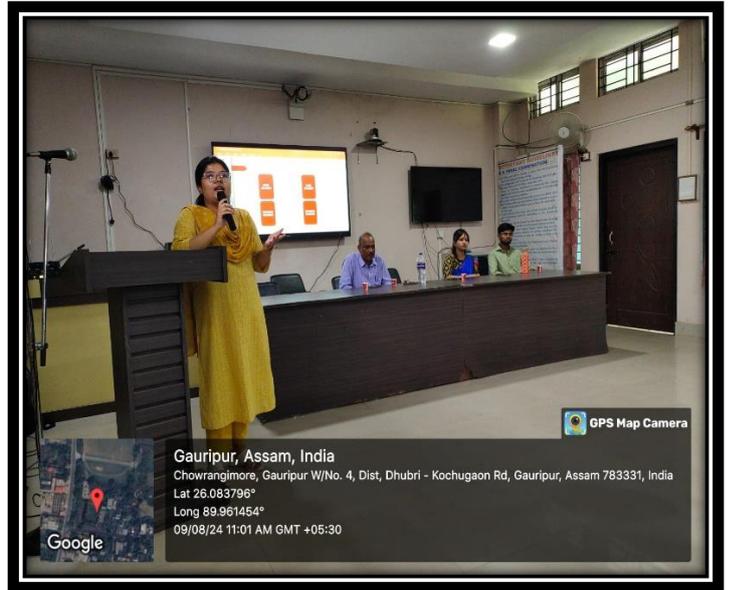

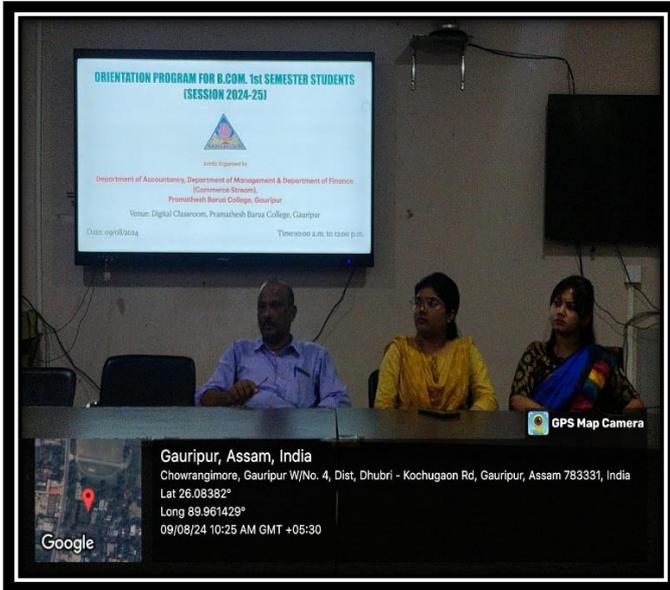

The program concluded with a Vote of Thanks delivered by Miss Bishakha Chetia, Assistant Professor, Department of Management. Miss Chetia expressed her gratitude to all the faculty members, students, and organizing team for making the event a success. She also wished the students a fruitful and enriching journey at Pramathesh Barua College.

The orientation program served as an essential stepping stone for the new students, helping them ease into their academic journey and setting the tone for a productive and engaging semester ahead.
