2. Selection of the Topic for Field Study/ Report

Broad Themes for Field Study and Preparation of Project Report
1	Financial Inclusion, awareness of financial services, use of digital payment methods in business. Special focus may be given towards economically and socially backward groups.
2	Consumer behaviour, customer satisfaction, customer preference towards a product/ product line
3	Socio- economic characteristics of different societal/cultural groups
4	Marketing of local and indigenous products and services. Special focus may be given towards handicraft and agriculture.
5	Tourism- problems and prospects
6	Job satisfaction, motivation, stress and its management in case of employees across different sectors/industry/company.

Notes:

- i. The students are to finalise their respective study topics as per any of the above themes only after detailed discussion with the assigned project supervisors. Projects prepared, if any, without the consultation of the Project supervisor may not be accepted.
- ii. The area of the field study should be strictly restricted to the geographical area of Dhubri District. That is, the field study on any of the topic must be conducted in Dhubri District.
- iii. The project report must be completed in a time bound manner and the same may be submitted with the dates notified in due course.
