Action Taken:

The report of the students' feedback for the academic session 2021-2022 was placed before the academic council meeting of the college. The feedback report shows of gradual improvement of every aspect of teaching learning environment of the college. After having discussion the meeting of Academic Council decided to practice the four point actions as follows:

1. To maintain accountability of both teaching and administration departments in the workplace.
2. To improve better workplace engagement.
3. To inspire the students community for better performance overall
4. To maintain healthy workplace relationship in and outside the campus.
